

Recent development in global changes and human mobilities

Organizers

Armando Montanari, Sapienza Rome University (Italy)

Description

Global changes, climatic, economic, and financial, help to change the mode, the characteristics and dimensions of mobility of people, goods and information. The session is aimed at those who have done research on these issues: those who have addressed the issue of the consequences of global change on mobility and those who, vice versa, analysed how mobility is contributing to global change. The concept of human mobility is familiar to the geographical discipline which has developed it for more than a decade of research and original concepts. In recent years, an intense and persistent economic crisis has changed some established parameters and has provided the inspiration for new research areas. The issues that will be considered are those developed by the IGU Commission Globility which was established in the year 2000. Topics that have been incorporated and further developed by numerous geographical magazines that have devoted attention to the deepening of the theme. This information includes the magazine "Mobilities" arrived at 7 years of publication, and special issues of journals as BELGEO, International Review of Sociology and Migracijske etnicke to which geographers, sociologists and economists they offered their contribution.

Read the abstracts

Slot 1

Sub-title: Human mobility perceptions

Chair: Armando Montanari

Presentation n. 1

Title: Does internal migration affect the mental health of migrants? An analysis of depression and anxiety using the British Households Panel Survey, 1991-2008.

Author(s): Nicolò Marchesini

Presentation n. 2

Title: At personal crossroads: perceptions, experiences and everyday strategies of a group of young postgraduate students in Barcelona (Spain)

Author(s): Anna Ortiz, Cristobal Mendoza

Presentation n. 3

Title: Residential preferences of the foreign retired immigrants: the case of the Canary Islands (Spain)

Author(s): Josefina Domínguez-Mujica, Ramon Díaz Hernández, Juan Parreño-Castellano

Presentation n. 4

Title: Population Mobility as Society Structure Effecting Process: case of Latvia

Author(s): Zenija Kruzmetra

Presentation n. 5

Title: Climate extremes and migration in South Asia: the local experts' knowledge and perception

Author(s): Robert Stojanov, Barbora Duží

Slot 2

Sub-title: Analysis methods

Chair: Gabor Michalko

Presentation n. 1

Title: Modeling of secondary trips: to understand the global evolutions of daily mobility

Author(s): Lionel Kieffer

Presentation n. 2

Title: Human mobility and coastal areas: a research methodology

Author(s): Barbara Staniscia, Armando Montanari

Presentation n. 3

Title: Global change and migration: an overview

Author(s): Etienne Piguet

Presentation n. 4

Title: Geographical Information Systems (GIS) and Self Organised Map (SOM), contribution to mobility analysis

Author(s): Luca Deravignone

Presentation n. 5

Title: Mobilités en action dans les réseaux du "made in Italy"

Author(s): Angela Alaimo, Alessandra Scroccaro

Slot 3

Sub-title: Ongoing changes

Chair: Barbara Staniscia

Presentation n. 1

Title: Recent population mobility in Croatia, causes and consequences

Author(s): Vera Graovac Matassi,

Presentation n. 2

Title: Territory and Mobility: Current Perspectives of High Speed Rail and Low Cost Air Transport in Europe

Author(s): Carlos Hugo Soria, Roberto D.Pisonero

Presentation n. 3

Title: Cycling as a new form of urban mobility, case study Zadar (Croatia)

Author(s): Ana Pejdo

Presentation n. 4

Title: Demographical factors of regional differentiation of migration

Author(s): Dovilė Krupickaitė

Presentation n. 5

Title: Crisis migrants, new trend of the recent EU mobility

Author(s): Elina Apsite-Berina, Maris Berzins, Zaiga Krisjane

Slot 4

Sub-title: Cultural interactions

Chair: Pere A. SALVÀ-TOMÀS

Presentation n. 1

Title: Migration and processes of cultural interaction: outcomes from the Italian geographical research and study opportunities facing "Metropolis 2014"

Author(s): Carlo Angelo Brusa, Davide Papotti

Presentation n. 2

Title: Investigation of the Mobility Attempts of Roma People in South Eastern Europe

Author(s): Istvan Süli-Zakar,, Mihály Tömöri

Presentation n. 3

Title: Youth urban mobility in Brussels and the global valorisation of mobility

Author(s): Perrine Devleeshouwer

Presentation n. 4

Title: Future development of Zadar County Transport System after Croatia's ascension to the

EU

Author(s): Damar Magaš, Ana Pejdopi

Presentation n. 5

Title: Human capital mobility in Europe: is the Old Continent still attractive for talents?

Author(s): Antonietta Pagano

Slot 5

Sub-title: Consumption led human mobility

Chair: Josefina Domínguez-Mujica

Presentation n. 1

Title: Invisible tourism within the Carpathian basin: mobility patterns and new features

Author(s): Gabor Michalko, Tamara Ratz, Anna Irimias

Presentation n. 2

Title: A look at human mobility: the food-ethnoscape in Rome. A case study: the Esquilino district

Author(s): Rossella Belluso

Presentation n. 3

Title: Human mobility and tourism marketing in Japan: the new trend for human resource management

Author(s): Yoshiyuki ISHIZAKI

Presentation n. 4

Title: Tourism and international retirement migration in Spain: relationship between tourism, mobility and residential tourism

Author(s): Pere A. SALVÀ-TOMÀS

Presentation n. 5

Title: Changes and new trends of mobility in Hungary's retail sector due to the economic crisis

Author(s): Mihály Tömöri

Session code: S26

